

Transfer Working Groups

Collective Action: Use a collective action framework to formalize the partnership between the attending organization. We believe a collective action framework is ideal for this work as it will allow us to focus our existing efforts to establish shared goals and measurement systems to track to further equitable transfer outcomes. In order to do this we would recommend identifying co-chairs from partner organizations with the Belk Center continuing to serve as the convening organization.

Steering Committee:

- Mark D'Amico, UNC-C
- David English, UNC System Office
- Kim Gold, NCCCS
- Cecilia Holden, myFutureNC
- AJ Jaeger, Belk Center
- Hope Williams, NCICU

Policy Implementation: Create working groups that focus on implementation of key policies and practices including credit for prior learning, BDPs, and transcript evaluation.

Chairs:

- Eric Fotheringham, UNC System Office
- JW Kelley, NCCCS

Committee:

- Angela Anderson, TAC & ECU
- Adam Atwell, Mitchell CC & UNC-C
- Monique Colclough, Belk Center
- Matt Meyer, NCCCS
- Ryan Miller, UNC-C
- Ted Zerucha, TAC & ASU

Policy Analysis: Identify 2-3 state level policies that are shown to improve transfer in other states (e.g. common course numbering or a common course reference guide).

Chairs:

- Lisa Eads, NCCCS
- Shun Robertson, UNC System Office

Committee:

- Levy Brown, TAC & VGCC
- Jeni Corn, myFutureNC
- Eric Fotheringham, UNC System Office
- Jenn Selby, TAC & RCCC
- Melissa Whatley, Belk Center

Research & Evaluation: Bring together two representatives from each organization to focus on data and identify 3-5 specific research questions related to the topics suggested in the 2019 TAC report to the NC legislature. Work together to co-author responses to the research questions across organizations.

Chairs:

- Kevin Nathanson, UNC System Office
- Bill Schneider, NCCCS

Committee:

- Jewel Cherry, TAC & Forsyth Tech
- Andrea DeSantis, Belk Center
- Sandra Dika, UNC-C
- Catherine Kurrilla, UNC System Office
- Jonathan Loss (Associate Dean of General Education, CVCC)
- Denettia Shaw (Director of Transfer Services, NCCU)
